

CLAIM PERIOD NOTICE

WERE YOU A SHAREHOLDER OF BIGKNOWLEDGE OR HUBBLE? YOU MAY RECEIVE MONEY

You can still benefit from the settlement agreement in the class action brought by Jean-François Paris against Renaud Lafrance, Alain Lafrance, Colleen Smith, Yvon Chouinard, André Duquenne, Michel Morin and Chubb Insurance Company of Canada (file: 500-06-000440 -087) which was approved by the Superior Court.

There will be a second claim period which will end on FEBRUARY 10, 2021, for members who have not already claimed.

Who can claim?

All persons who were or became shareholders of Capital Hubble Inc. or BigKnowledge Enterprises Inc. between June 24, 2005, and December 6, 2005, except for shareholders who made a profit from the sale of their shares. The officers and directors of these companies are also excluded. This is a second claim period. If you have already received compensation for this file, or your claim has already been rejected, you are not eligible for this second claim period.

How much?

You are entitled to a reimbursement equivalent to 81.5297% of your losses related to the purchase and sale of shares of Capital Hubble Inc. or BigKnowledge Enterprises Inc. covered by the class action.

How to claim?

CLAIM BEFORE FEBRUARY 10, 2021, if you wish to receive an indemnity. Trudel Johnston & Lespérance ("TJL") must receive your form before this date.

The claim form and the protocol detailing the distribution process can be found on the TJL web site: <http://tjl.quebec/en/class-action/bigknowledgehubble/>.
