AND TO: Every person who has ever purchased and/or leased a KIA vehicle listed below in the Province of Quebec.

2001-2002 Magentis 2.4 Litre, 2002 Magentis 2.7 Litre V6 and/or 2001 Magentis 2.5 Litre V6.

On September 9, 2002, Hyundai and KIA announced that there was a discrepancy between previously published horsepower ratings and restated horsepower ratings. At that time, Hyundai offered to owners or lessees of 1999 and earlier model-year vehicles with respect to which the horsepower discrepancy exceeded 4%, a three-year, unlimited kilometers, roadside assistance plan, and to owners or lessees of 2000 and later model-year vehicles with respect to which the horsepower discrepancy exceeded 4%, their choice of (i) an extra three years of roadside assistance, (ii) an extension of the three-year/60,000-kilometre, new vehicle warranty to four years/80,000 kilometers, or (iii) an extension of the five-year/100,000-kilometre power train warranty to six years/120,000 kilometers (the "Hyundai Offer").

Following that announcement, two separate class actions were authorized against Hyundai Motor America and Kia Canada Inc. The settlement of those two class actions was recently approved by the Superior Court of Quebec (500-06-000180-022 and 500-06-000196-036).

The settlement provides that Class Members who, on September 9, 2002, were the owners or lessees of a vehicle listed in the table below are eligible to receive compensation. The amount of that compensation depends on (a) the magnitude of the discrepancy between the published horsepower rating of the vehicle and the restated rating as disclosed on September 9, 2002, (b) the model year of the vehicle and (c) whether the Hyundai Offer was accepted. The amounts of compensation are shown in the table below.

[Hyundai Auto Canada or KIA Canada Inc.] has reviewed the Claim Form you filed under the court approved settlement in the Michel Tardif and Dominic Desbiens v. Hyundai Motor America as well as Paul Miller v. KIA Canada Inc. class actions (the "Settlement") and has found that you are entitled to compensation under the Settlement.

As a result, you will find attached herewith a cheque in payment of the compensation owed to you. We also attach herewith a table detailing the compensation payable for each listed vehicle. Please note that a 2% reduction of the amounts set forth in this table was applied in accordance with the Regulation respecting the percentage withheld by the Fonds d'aide aux recours collectifs.

If you believe the compensation hereby paid to you is less than the amount showed in the table attached herewith (less the 2% reduction), you have the right to submit a written request to Class Counsel to consider the matter. After reviewing your written request, Class Counsel will make a preliminary determination as to whether your disagreement is well founded. If Class Counsel determines that your disagreement is well founded, Class Counsel will consult with Hyundai or KIA for the purpose of resolving your dispute. If such consultation does not result in your request for compensation being granted, or if Class Counsel is of the opinion that your disagreement is ill founded, you may seek an order from the Court requiring Hyundai or KIA to pay to you the total compensation you requested. Class Counsel services will be provided to you at no charge, as Hyundai and Kia have agreed to pay for their fees and expenses.

1. PURPOSE
OF THIS NOTICE

On September 9, 2002, Hyundai and KIA announced that there was a discrepancy between previously published horsepower ratings and restated horsepower ratings. At that time, Hyundai offered to owners or lessees of 1999 and earlier model-year vehicles with respect to which the horsepower discrepancy exceeded 4%, a three-year, unlimited kilometers, roadside assistance plan, and to owners or lessees of 2000 and later model-year vehicles with respect to which the horsepower discrepancy exceeded 4%, their choice of (i) an extra three years of roadside assistance, (ii) an extension of the three-year/60,000-kilometre, new vehicle warranty to four years/80,000 kilometers, or (iii) an extension of the five-year/100,000-kilometre power train warranty to six years/120,000 kilometers (the "Hyundai Offer").

Following that announcement, two separate class actions were authorized by the Superior Court of Quebec against Hyundai Motor America and Kia Canada inc. (500-06-000180-022 and 500-06-000196-036).

A Settlement Agreement has been reached between the Plaintiffs, on one hand, and Hyundai and KIA, on the other, with settlement benefits up to approximately $5,662,493.00 to be paid to settle the claims of all Class Members. If you would like a copy of the Settlement Agreement, it is available on the web at www.recourscollectif.info or at www.trudeljohnston.com. You can have a hard copy sent to you by contacting Class Counsel.

Hyundai and KIA will pay Class Counsel's legal fees of $1,250,000.00, plus applicable taxes and their expenses. These legal fees and expenses will be in addition to the total amount of the settlement fund, and therefore will not reduce the fund.

A settlement approval hearing in these Class Actions has been scheduled for January 30, 2007 at 9:30 am at the Montreal Courthouse before the Superior Court of Quebec, located at 1 Notre Dame Street East, Montreal, Quebec, Room 6.02. If you wish to comment on, or make an objection to the Settlement Agreement, you must deliver a written submission to Class Counsel at the address listed below, no later than January 23, 2007. Class Counsel will forward all such submissions to the Court.

If you do not deliver a written submission to Class Counsel by January 23, 2007, you will not be entitled to participate in the hearing and you will have no standing to later file an appeal should the Settlement Agreement be approved. Should the Settlement Agreement receive final approval from the Court, further notices will be published on the websites listed above, and in such media as are directed by the Court.

2. DISTRIBUTION PROTOCOL

If the Settlement Agreement receives Court approval, the settlement payments will be made in accordance with the distribution protocol to be approved by the Court.
